SENATOR BORAH ASSAILS MINE OPERATORS

DAHOAN SAYS OWNERS SHOULD MEET MINERS

Bosses Have Broken Solemn Obligation Senator Tells Senate

LEWIS IN DEBATE
First Reports of Strike Violence Recorded; Colorado Home Bombed
WASHINGTON, April 4.—Chairman Nolan of the labor committee, which has been hearing testimony in connection with the nation-wide coal strike, addressed telegrams late today to operators in Indiana, Illinois and eastern Ohio, telling them that the United Mine Workers, through John L. Lewis, president, had expressed a willingness to meet a representative body of the central competitive field.
The telegrams sent by Representative Nolan asked the operators to state their attitude toward such a meeting. Other messages, Mr. Nolan said, probably would be sent to operators in the southern Ohio and western Pennsylvania fields.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The coal operators were criticized in the senate today by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, chairman of the senate labor committee, who charged that they had "broken a solemn obligation" in the contract which expired March 31. He declared the public would have to take "drastic measures" to protect itself.

OWE IT TO PUBLIC
The mine owners owe it to the public, he said, "to use their utmost efforts to bring about a conference and an understanding. If the miners and the mine owners are to be broken down, it has reached the point where the public in defense of its affairs, must take some drastic measures in order to control this great industry."

LEWIS EXPLAINS
Miners demands for a six-hour day and five-day week—issues involved in the international coal strike—were described by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, in continuing his testimony today before a house committee, a move to prevent regularity of employment.
"Men employed by the day," he said, "would receive the same wages they are now getting, but the miners who dig coal would be paid a steady wage for the coal they produce."

NOBODY PAYS, CLAIM
"Who will that come out of?" Mr. Lewis demanded after figuring up the total.
"Nobody," Mr. Lewis retorted, "because your figures are absurd, and cannot follow your mental gyrations in this subject."
"When the 12-hour day was changed to the 10-hour day," Mr. Lewis interrupted, "the efficiency was increased and the production per man per hour increased. The same effect continued when the 10-hour day was cut to 8 hours. The efficiency increased more than sufficient to make up the loss. The fact has been authoritatively made and universally recognized."

WILLING TO DISCUSS IT
"I'd like to point out that we are willing to discuss all these demands around a council table with operators," Mr. Lewis returned, "and then we cannot show them to be reasonable. We won't expect to press them."
Mr. Black declared that "while wages of anthracite miners now can reach 18 per cent more than they could in 1920, the purchasing power of the farmer in my territory has been 50 per cent since 1920" and asked Mr. Lewis:
"Do you think that industrial and agricultural workers can long withstand the pressure to have them take some of the loss, too?"
"It is well to remember that during the war farmers got the greatest profits in their prices," while we contend that mine workers are never able to get the full increase in living cost represented in wage advances."

Mr. Black advanced the suggestion that in consideration of the present rise of prices, mine wage scales were

ARISTOCRATS ASSERT OTTO IS NEW KING

Legitimist Proclamation Sets Forth Charles's Son Is Monarch
HORTHY IS STRONGER
Hungarian Government Gains Strength From Death of Ex-Emperor

BUDAPEST, April 4.—(By The Associated Press).—A legitimate proclamation declaring that "with the death of Charles, Otto, the Second is king of Hungary, although temporarily prevented from coronation," has been issued, signed by 19 aristocrats, headed by Count Albert Apponyi.
Cardinal Csernoch, primate of Hungary, made the declaration today that in his opinion Otto had become king. Municipal council has adopted a resolution by Count Apponyi that the former emperor be buried in Budapest.

ALL RIGHTS GONE
The government is conceding the legitimacy desires for national mourning as for a sovereign, and also has stated there is no objection to the burial of Charles in Hungary. If he expressed such a wish in his testament.
As regards the claims put forward for Otto, the government insists that the rights of all the Hapsburgs were abrogated by the dethronement of Otto which is barred by that law, dependent on the consent of the allied powers.

COURT DISMISSES MACHINE GUN SUIT

CLEVELAND, O., April 4.—Suit was brought by S. W. McLean of Detroit, and other stockholders of the McLean Arms and Ordnance company, against the N. A. Bradley, R. M. Calfee and others for $250,000 alleged to be due from profits through the sale of the Lewis machine gun during the world war, was dismissed by Judge John W. Peck, of Cincinnati, in the federal district court here Monday.
In his suit, Mr. McLean claimed that his patents which had been unfairly sold, had been embodied in the Lewis gun. Conspiracy also was charged.
The court held that the success of the Lewis machine gun was not due to any of McLean's inventions. It was also decided there was no evidence to show any conspiracy or fraudulent intent on the part of the defendants. On the other hand the decision says, the evidence shows unusual effort on the part of the defendants to save the McLean company, and that full and fair notice had been given to the stockholders of the condition of the company.

Huge Slide Covers U.P. Tracks In Canyon

TRAFFIC on the eastbound tracks of the Union Pacific lines out of Ogden will be hampered for four days as the result of a landslide in Weber canyon, according to information given out today by local railroad officials.
The slide occurred east of the Sheep Rock tunnel near Gateway and is reported to be one of the largest ever recorded in the history of the road. It is said to be 1500 feet long, about 2000 feet wide and about 50 feet in height, completely covering the eastbound track.
Snow, ice and rock, crushed together, will make the removal of the debris especially difficult local officials of the Union Pacific stated.
Steam shovels from Cheyenne were dispatched to the scene of the slide Monday and were to be placed in operation today.
During the time the eastbound main line is held up from traffic the eastbound and westbound freight and passenger trains will be operated over the westbound tracks.

$250,000 FOR TOUR OFFERED MARY GARDEN

If Opera Company Would Keep Her, That Figure Must Be Matched

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—Mary Garden, director and prima donna of the Chicago Opera company, which is appearing here, has received from Charles L. Wagner, her former manager, an offer of $250,000 for a season's concert tour, and if the opera company would keep her it must meet that figure, according to a statement accredited to Miss Garden's secretary by the Chronicle today.
The diva's secretary, according to the newspaper, stated for Miss Garden that she "had no plans for her operatic future." It was reported she would await the outcome of a conference with the directors of the Chicago Opera association to be held after April 23, when the company's tour will end.
"In her present frame of mind," added the purported statement, "Miss Garden is willing to continue with the Chicago Grand Opera company as a star and without the authority of a director general. In such a contingency, Miss Garden would expect the Chicago Opera association to meet the contract, which has been offered her by Mr. Wagner."
Miss Garden has been ill since her arrival here, but is reported practically recovered and is expected to sing later in the week.

Secretary of Commerce Urges Action in Construction Industry
WAYS POINTED OUT
Hoover Assails Business and Labor Practices of Minority

CHICAGO, April 4.—"The practices of a small minority in the construction industry are unendurable and must be cleaned up if business and commerce desires protection from the steady invasion of regulatory hands of the government," said Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, in his address today before the fifth annual meeting of the National Federation of Construction Industries. The secretary said that during the past ten months the department of commerce has given intensive study to the situation in the construction industry and he made the comment:
"This situation must be cleaned up." Conclusions reached by the department, Mr. Hoover summarized as follows:

HIS CONCLUSIONS
That the industry needs cleaning and the decent men in the industry must organize to do it; that the great indirect wastes which are beyond the control of any one individual man or concern must be eliminated by associated action and that to accomplish these ends there is needed a cleaner organization of the trades, not the destruction of the trades organizations.
"In the matter of business and labor practices of the minority," said Mr. Hoover, "I need not recite the repeated exposure in all directions that have sickened the public during the past twelve months. There are other thousands who have not yet been exposed. I have no taste for demagogic statements. I do have an aspiration for constructive remedies."

DISCUSSES LUMBER
Several leading manufacturers inform me that the time has come when we must have a guarantee against short delivered and fraudulent alteration of quantities. The product of the honest miller must reach the consumer as the manufacturer wishes his product to reach the consumer. Also he must have protection from the crooked competitors. Many commodities are assured as to quantity and grade under the inspection and rules of our voluntary trade associations. If you think it wiser to do so we could probably secure the enactment of a pure food law in all building materials. I would much rather see the trades themselves establish their own standards.
"We need a cleaning up in the statistical work of the trade associations. Some of this work stands condemned in the courts as a restraint of trade and against public interest, yet other kinds of statistics are in the interest of the public as well."
